Course Cancellation Policy

Once you have booked your course, if you need to cancel it for any reason there will be a EUR 150.00 administration charge. You will be refunded the rest of the application fee upon cancellation.

For cancellations after April 30th, 2018 the full tuition fee is due and won't be refunded.

We recommend to sign a cancellation insurance which covers the tuition fee in cases of accidents, illnesses, etc. For more information please contact our office.

In case you have to interrupt the training during the online group study part 1 and rebook to a later training, we charge an administration fee of EUR 250.00.

Personal Behaviour

The basic prerequisite for this training is a heartfelt commitment to serve others. The IISB will not tolerate any form of aggressive or inappropriate behaviour towards their facilitators, venue staff or other group members. Any such behaviour will be addressed and if not rectified immediately could result in you being asked to leave a course. Where you have been requested to leave a course no refund will be given.

Certification Requirements:

Certification is awarded on the basis of successful completion of the course, including

- Full Attendance of the Intensive in Berlin
- Taking part in the home study part I and II
- Timely Completion of all home study assignments during the online study
- Payment in full of course fees
- Completion of a minimum of 50 (fifty) practice sessions
- Demonstrating a level of excellence in understanding and practice of Sexological Bodywork
- Satisfactory evaluation by faculty

Qualified students are awarded certification upon fulfillment of these "Certification Requirements" as given by the International Institute for Sexological Bodywork

Details and Changes:

I acknowledge my understanding that the program for which I am registering is a course in Sexological Bodywork practice and is not a substitute for couples therapy, sex therapy, medical, psychiatric or psychological care or treatment.

I further acknowledge that I understand that the course deals with sexuality and sexual practices and is intended for adults only.

My participation in any and all practices suggested in the Sexological Bodywork course is fully voluntary. I understand that I have the right to decline to engage in any practice suggested in the Sexological Bodywork training that conflicts with my personal values or beliefs.

I agree to the above terms and conditions for registration and participation in the Sexological Bodywork Certificate Training 2016 at the International Institute for Sexological Bodywork IISB®.
